

The Department of the Criptid Control
Science Report
Date: 1975, December, 17
Level Clearance: DCC -- level 4

ADDENDUM — PERSONNEL LOSS EVENTS NUMBER 56892

---

APPENDED TO: DCC-
CLEARANCE: LEVEL 5
STATUS: STRICKEN

---

INCIDENT SUMMARY

Between September 19 and September 22, 1983, the Oilman specimen was associated with the loss of six (6) research and containment personnel within the secured laboratory wing.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

The specimen

[REDACTED]

The room

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

---

EVENT SEQUENCE

09-19-83 / 21:14

Technician Harold C. Meyers entered the containment room alone.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

09-20-83 / 00:03

Senior Analyst Dr. Renata Iliescu entered the room.
She removed her gloves.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

09-20-83 / 02:41

Containment Assistant Luis Navarro was recovered alive.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
He died twelve minutes later.

09-21-83 / 11:18

Two staff members entered together.
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

09-22-83 / 04:56

Night Supervisor Elaine Porter resigned verbally during debrief.
She returned to the containment wing alone.

---

OBSERVED EFFECTS

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
No blood was recovered.
No remains were recovered.

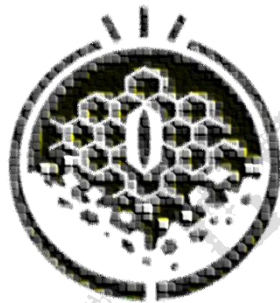

---

INTERNAL ASSESSMENT

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

FINAL ENTRY

PENDING REVIEW

DATE: _____

DEPARTMENT OF CRYPTID CONTROL
SCIENCE DIVISION