

The Department of the Criptid Control
Science Report
Date: 1975, December, 17
Level Clearance: DCC -- level 4

ADDENDUM — PERSONNEL LOSS EVENTS NUMBER 5689■2

APPENDED TO: DCC-RCD-OM-83-Δ

CLEARANCE: ■■■■■

STATUS: STRICKEN

INCIDENT SUMMARY

Between ■■■■■ and ■■■■■, the Oilman specimen was associated with the loss of ■■■ (■) personnel within the secured containment wing.

No alarms were triggered.

No containment seals failed.

No emergency protocols were initiated.

The specimen did not relocate.

The room did not change.

Only the number of ■■■■■ inside it did.

EVENT SEQUENCE

■■■ / ■■■

■■■■■ entered the containment room alone to ■■■■■.

Camera feed shows the subject standing at the ■■■■■ table for ■■■ seconds.

Video degradation occurred.

Upon restoration, the subject was ■■■■■.

■■■ / ■■■

■■■■■ entered to confirm ■■■■■ status.

■■■■■ removed protective gloves.

Audio captured a single phrase:

"■■■■■ ■■■■■ ■■■■■."

■■■■■ did not exit.

[REDACTED] / [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was sent to retrieve both [REDACTED].

Recovered [REDACTED] was [REDACTED] and [REDACTED].

No trauma present.

Death occurred [REDACTED] minutes later.

[REDACTED] / [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] personnel entered together.

Only [REDACTED] was recorded leaving.

[REDACTED] / [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] resigned verbally during debrief.

Statement included:

"[REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] [REDACTED]."

[REDACTED] returned to containment wing alone.

COMMON FACTORS

- All affected personnel had prolonged exposure exceeding [REDACTED] minutes
- All used relational language when referring to the specimen
- All removed protective gloves
- All incidents occurred without witnesses

No blood recovered.

No remains recovered.

FINAL ENTRY

At no point did the specimen exhibit movement.

At no point did it need to.

~~PENDING REVIEW~~

~~DATE: _____~~