

AUTHORIZED LANGUAGE & SYMBOL USE

1. Why Codewords Exist

Direct language increases:

- Panic
- Misinterpretation
- Post-event recall clarity

All anomalous phenomena are assigned neutral terminology.

Example:

- Do not write: "Creature mimicked voices"
- Write: "Subject exhibited Class II Auditory Projection"

2. Common Codewords

- BLEED - [REDACTED]
- SLEEPER - [REDACTED]
- SWIVEL - [REDACTED]
- OILMAN - [REDACTED]
- GREEN DRAGON - [REDACTED]

- (see manuals)

3. Redaction Marks

Use redaction blocks to:

- Obscure exact measurements
- Remove geographic precision
- Prevent pattern recognition

Partial redaction is intentional.

4. Repetition Directive

Approved codewords may appear repeatedly across documents.

This is not an error.

5. Symbols are handled at the department of symbols and psychiatric levers.

- Do not use any symbol unless authorized
- Do not describe symbols to others
- Do not stare at symbols for longer than 30 secs
- Do not permanently mark any surface including your body with any symbol from this division
